QUALITY PRESS PRESENTS A VARIETY OF NEW TITLES BY SELF-PUBLISHED AUTHORS AT THE 2016 ALA – BOOTH 575

Quality Press will present a variety of titles by Self-Publisher Authors at Small Press Booth 575 at the ALA Annual Conference. Quality Press, the nation's #1 African American book packaging company, offers consultation and services in every aspect of paperback, hardcover and eBook publishing, such as: proofreading, editing, ghostwriting, design/formatting, printing, publicity marketing, promotions & distribution. "Take your destiny into your own hands. Bring us your manuscript and Quality Press will turn it into a Published Book in just six weeks." Since its inception the company has worked with thousands of authors who have done just that.

Quality Press was founded in 2001 by Tony Rose, the 2013 NAACP Image Award Winner for Outstanding Literature. Rose who is also Publisher/CEO, of Amber Communications Group, Inc., the nation's largest African American Publisher of Self-Help Books and Music Biographies, launched Quality Press specifically to assist aspiring authors with their self-publishing ventures.

Under the Direction of Yvonne Rose, Quality Press currently works with self-published authors who specialize in books by, for and about African Americans and features all genres including: Children, Self-help, Biographies, Poetry, Fiction and Non-fiction. Despite the many obstacles and much resistance by the bookstores, Quality Press' publishing partnerships with Authors and Librarians have set African American culture at the forefront of the book publishing industry.

During the ALA Conference Quality Press will introduce a diverse collection of titles by over thirty self-published authors as they bring their stories to our community and the world.
